

Nomination form

At Council this nomination form must be placed in the ballot box marked "Nomination Forms Only"
(A separate form is required for each nomination)

This nomination form is used for all Federation, Departmental and Ministerial Committees, for delegates to affiliated organisations, and for conferences and seminars organised by outside bodies. Should special or additional forms be required, this will be stated in the notification for the position. This nomination form must not be used for elections conducted by the state or Australian Electoral Commission.
