

The campaign is working! We must keep the pressure on Turnbull

May 02, 2017

Today's announcement by the Federal government tells us that our schools funding campaign has been having a significant impact.

It is now more important than ever to keep the pressure on the federal government to deliver the existing funding commitments.

Tonight's tweetathon is a vital chance to tell Malcolm Turnbull that he must deliver on current funding agreements.

We need everyone to get on twitter tonight between 6:30 and 8:30pm, tag @turnbullmalcolm, and tell him that he must deliver the current schools funding agreements, now!
